DISCLAIMER OF LIABILITY: The following terms apply to services rendered by RaceAway Hospitality Inc (RAH) to its clients and tour event participants (Participant). Receipt of Participant payment, partial or in full, for services provided by RAH shall constitute acknowledgement and acceptance of these terms and agreement to convey these terms to all registered Participants. RAH is an independent operator not directly affiliated with any event, venue or sponsor or box office. RAH acts as an agent for service providers whose personnel, equipment and operations are not under the control of RAH. Service providers include, but are not limited to: Transportation providers, hotels, caterers, contractors, event venues such as race tracks and other attractions. RAH shall not be held responsible for breach of contract, actions or omissions on the part of service providers which result in injury, death, damage, loss, delay or denial of access. RAH shall not be held responsible for injury, death, damage, loss, delay or denial of access in connection with terrorist activities, war, local laws, mechanical difficulties, disease, or climactic conditions. RAH shall offer travel insurance for sale and Participants are responsible for purchasing travel insurance, if desired. Cancellations must be submitted in writing and are subject to the following fees, based upon the entire cost of reserved services: 61 or more days prior to the event: 15% service fee, 31 to 60 Days prior to the event: 25% service fee, 15 to 30 Days prior to the event: 50% service fee. Cancellations will not be accepted within 15 days of the event. Packages are transferable up to seven days prior to the event with the prior approval of RAH. RAH may provide information regarding venue access and regulations, but shall not be held responsible for Participant failure to adhere to venue and sanctioning body regulations resulting in injury, death, damage, loss, delay or denial of access. If an event is postponed or rescheduled, RAH will make reasonable efforts to assist Participants with extended accommodation reservations and track transportation. Costs associated with extended accommodations and track transportation will be the responsibility of the Participant. RAH reserves the right to refuse or cancel service at any time. RAH reserves the right to substitute tickets in locations different from those originally stated as long as the location is reasonably comparable to or better than the original location. The inclusion of tickets and packages purchased from RAH in public promotions is strictly prohibited. Package rates are subject to change without notice. RAH may make periodic changes to contents, products and services described on its websites. RAH shall not be responsible for damages including, but not limited to, loss of data or profits in connection with the use or display of the contents of its websites. Website contents including photos, text, links, logos and graphics may not be copied or used without the written permission of RAH. Participant agrees that these terms and performance disputes shall be interpreted and governed by the laws of the state of Iowa.
